About Karen . . .

Karen is a leadership coach bar none. She helps leaders grow by putting tangible action steps around their vision and by identifying obstacles in the way of becoming all God created them to be.

She is author of Leadership FITness - Experiencing Fullness in the Temple. Her leadership development articles are featured in various print and online publications.

Karen is a virtuous leader in her home as a wife to Stanley Pina, a leadership coach and pastor, and mother to two beautiful girls.

Speaking Topics

1) Living the life of a leader in:

- Ministry
- Marriage/Relationships
- Business/Work
- Finances
- Health and Fitness

God has taught Karen how to live in His glory in every area of life. She will empower you to do the same. Your ministry, marriage, health, and finances will be revolutionized.

2) Be Like Jesus . . . don't just do Jesus' Work

Most Christian leaders are so busy working for Jesus they aren't aware of "how" they are doing His work. The character of Jesus is not infused into what they are doing, and they rarely take a breath. She will show you how to breathe again and arm you with the tools you need be like Jesus while working, and it only takes 10 minutes a day!

3) What is True Leadership Success?

The definition of success has become murky and cloudy for many Christian leaders. Karen will challenge you to redefine success God's way. You will learn how to be tenacious pursuing what God called you to pursue without a fan club, recognition, a mega church, or a million dollars.

Distinctive Offerings

4) Dancing a Leader's Life - a tailor-made dance that speaks to where you are in your leadership journey.

5) Poem Juice - a prophetic poem that contains the juice you need to keep you going.

Ministry Leaders say:

■ "Only 4 words: breath of fresh life." – Minister Eva

■ "We were especially blessed by your wisdom on being like Jesus vs. doing the work of Jesus." – Rev. Stevens

■ "The relationship seminar was excellent! We learned to do it God's way." - Pastor Toni

Karen is also available for retreats, coaching conferences, corporate and women's events.
