COACHING FIRM LAUNCHES ENLIGHTENING WRITING

TRUMBULL, CT, FEBRUARY 20, 2009: Gifts Ordained by Direction is overjoyed to announce the launch of Enlightening Writing, a new coaching package for aspiring Christian authors.

The visionary of the new package is Karen M. Pina, an entrepreneur, trainer, leadership coach, university-level educator, ordained minister, and community leader.

Karen designed this package to see aspiring Christian authors enlightened about the true reasons for writing a book and to catch a glimpse of the majesty and power of God writing through a fully yielded vessel. "What's been stopping you from completing the book?" Many things I would imagine. The one thing I know is not keeping you stuck is information. There is a ton of information out here on how to write a book. If it were information, the book would be complete by now. Truly, the missing key is revelation. Revelation, "You say?" "Yes, revelation!" Each year a bazillion books are written. Revelation is what anchors Christian authors in this competitive money making writing industry.

This package will escort you into the divine wisdom and enlightenment you need so you can finally and peacefully complete your book project. Let's partner together so you can move forward and write that book. "Let me be your lightning rod to protect you from all the attacks that come against completing your book!" said Karen M. Pina.

Aspiring authors can find out more information about the Enlightening Writing package and sign up for a complimentary consultation at www.godscoach.com/services.html.
